

My wife and I both feel the no call list for the state of Indiana is working quite well, we feel that there should be no changes made to this Law, please accept our comments on this matter. Thank you for your consideration.